Vol 3

April 2013

Dear Sasha ,

Have you booked your trip to Vegas yet for the Conference? Why not? I am looking forward to it. My personal favorite event of our conference is the Contractor and Erector Round-Table. This year's panel includes representatives from the Erectors, Contractors, Manufacturers and OSHA. I am sure it will be a dynamic and lively discussion.

If you have a topic for discussion, drop me a line. This is a perfect venue to hear from experts and peers about the issues and opportunities you face on a daily basis.

I am pleased to report that our web-site has had a long over-due update. The site is now easier to maintain and has several new features: an events calendar - one central location to see what is going on in industry all around the nation a Classified Ads section - have a spare crew? selling equipment? need a crew? Post it here - Free to members, slight fee for non-members.

The site is a work in progress and will continue to be fine-tuned and updated. Contact Sasha with your classified ads, events or just general information/feedback. You should be able to see it in the next few days at www.MBCEA.org (I'm told it may take a few days to perk its way through the world wide web)

Sincerely,

Gary Smith

How Smart Business People Will Succeed during Obama's Second Term

" Provocative. Educational. Entertaining. Refreshingly non-partisan. Be prepared to take lots of notes."

WHAT KEY ECONOMIC, TECHNOLOGICAL AND LEGISLATIVE ISSUES TRENDS WILL BE MOST PROMINENT DURING THE NEXT FEW YEARS UNDER THE PRESIDENT'S SECOND TERM?

There are significant trends happening to us today that will affect us tomorrow. In this 45-90 minute keynote, Gene Marks will share what winning companies are doing to respond to these trends.
